

Burnaby School District Settlement Services

Moving to a new country can be exciting time. It can also be an overwhelming and stressful event for families. The “Settlement Workers in Schools program” has been established to support families during their first three years in Canada and to assist with immediate needs including:

- Outreach to new immigrant families
- Information and counselling on initial settlement
- Orientation to school and community services
- Referral and service linking to community and government services
- Cultural interpretation
- Settlement workshops
- Youth programs
- Parenting workshops
